

Ray Wangen/Oliver Chronicle

Driving for unemployment

David Rowsell stands in front of the National Unemployment Clock truck on Hwy. 97. The vehicle, which is intended to raise awareness about corporate outsourcing of jobs, is travelling across Canada and stopped in Oliver on Monday, June 1.

